Leave a comment if you are too! Or if you are experiencing any other weirdness today or tonight on TD.W. I haven't been able to upload a successful Image Post all day, even with 300 KB files!

Just seeing this: we did temporarily remove content from December 19th to January 7th.

This was not at the request of anyone, and the data has not been provided to anyone.

Best guess is that timeframe is when the bulk talk of violence went on and it was easier to just delete everything in the timeframe to preserve the site from being de-hosted. Definitely not a great solution but that's what my guess is.

Yeah that's what I was thinking. Even "top" posts are gone during that time frame. Mods probably deleted everything in order to further defend from any lurkers grasping at straws.

We call that "a canary".

The government probably has it all and mods are under a gag order.

There was a part of a mod post a while back, talking about how TD.win had never released any data to the government.

I wonder if it still says that.

Lets post every so often to get the mods attention and find out.

My memory of the post was off a bit.

<https://thedonald.win/p/11RhYNBUM7/x/c/4DtEk5tODUK> (archived <https://archive.is/VQUeB>)

To address the concerns over whether we hand information to third parties: No, we have never handed any information to a third party. We also do not store raw IP addresses and the email addresses that we store are hashed, like passwords. While we do receive requests, to date we have not given out any information.

This should be the canary. u/doggos, if this (linked) comment disappears, we know what's up.

I don't know what caused it to happen. I sent a message to the moderators asking if they know but haven't heard anything back yet!

I had a lot of posts during the missing period, including some stickies, but my "updoot count" hasn't gone down either!

Between 9 and 29 days ago was when everybody was going crazy LARPing about various activities "in Minecraft", I reckon the mods took the sledgehammer approach to get rid of incriminating content.

I have no submitted items and no comments showing between 9 days ago (Jan 6?) and 29 days ago.

Wonder if wiped, or subpoenaed and preserved?

TheDonald uses the cloudflare javascript (Easy to see if you use the NoScript Addon to block certain scripts)

Perhaps the posts were stored on Cloudflare, and cloudflare is deleting shit. Could be a ninja attack by cloudflare.

Any thoughts?

Yes, stuff seems missing between those dates.

Maybe a server backup temporarily out?

~3 weeks up to Jan. 8th.

Yes, could also be from a subpoena.

Subpoena would not typically remove the data. I've worked for a company that had to hand over data but it just required copying since just pulling hard-drives would have cost tens of thousands of dollars an hour and made the company inoperable.

Keep posting and ask the mods if that data was part of a government subpoena. If it wasn't and they aren't under a gag order it's easy to deny.

I was forced to change my password tonight after being redirected to an authentication page. When I would put in my info it would tell me I was already logged in but nothing would show.
